

LIVE SPORTS Edited By Louis Dougher

JOHNNY BENTLEY IS NOW AMONG AILING

Promising Young Southpaw Complains of Chills and Fever and Can't Twirl.

BIRMINGHAM PLANS OFFENSE

May Play Roy Wood at First Base Today Because Doc Johnston Can't Swat.

PROBABLE LINE-UP.

NAPLANDERS.	GRIFFMEN.
Leibold, cf.	Moe, cf.
Turner, 3b.	Foster, 3b.
Graney, lf.	Milan, cf.
Jackson, rf.	Gandil, 1b.
Lajoie, 2b.	Shanks, lf.
Johnston, 1b.	Morgan, 2b.
Olson, ss.	McBride, ss.
Carisch, c.	Henry, c.
Bassler, c.	Williams, c.
Gregg, p.	Johnson, p.
Hagerman, p.	Engel, p.
Cellamore, p.

Game at 3:30 p. m.

By THOMAS KIRBY.

As soon as one player gets out that Griffithian ambience, another top-

Johnny Bentley complained last evening that he was not feeling well and when the roll was called at morning practice today, Bentley was missing, sending word that he was unable to leave his bed. He is victim of an attack of chills and fever and, while the case is not considered serious, it will probably mean the elimination of the silent twirler for a few days.

The club physician's roster now is: John Henry, bruised arm; Ed Almsmith, broken arm; Dick Williams, sore arm; Harry Harper, sore arm; and Johnny Bentley, fever.

In addition, Kubie, the Chicago catcher, is under the physician's care, with a shattered bone in the index finger of his right hand.

Roy Wood may play first base for the Naps this afternoon. Birmingham is said to believe that sending Johnston to the bench and injecting Wood into the contest will add to the offensive strength of his club.

To those who have views on the Sunday baseball question, it may be interesting to know that the mail of the

Baseball Standings

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Standing of Clubs.

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss.
Detroit	19	9	.680
Chicago	18	10	.643
St. Louis	18	11	.619
Philadelphia	17	12	.588
Cleveland	17	13	.562
Washington	16	14	.531
Pittsburgh	15	15	.500
St. Paul	14	16	.469
Minneapolis	13	17	.438
Buffalo	12	18	.407
Cleveland	11	19	.376

Today's Games.

Cleveland at Washington.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at New York.
Detroit at Boston.

Tomorrow's Games.

St. Louis at Washington.
Detroit at Philadelphia.
Cleveland at New York.
Chicago at Boston.

Yesterday's Results.

Washington, 4; Cleveland, 2.
Chicago, 3; Athletics, 6.
St. Louis, 2; New York, 6.
Boston, 6; Detroit, 1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Standing of Clubs.

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss.
Pittsburgh	16	8	.667
New York	15	9	.625
Cincinnati	15	10	.600
Brooklyn	14	11	.561
Philadelphia	13	12	.520
St. Louis	13	13	.500
Chicago	12	14	.462
Boston	11	15	.423

Today's Games.

Boston at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Chicago.
New York at Cincinnati.

Tomorrow's Games.

Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Boston at Chicago.
New York at St. Louis.

Yesterday's Results.

Pittsburgh, 7; Boston, 6.
New York, 5; Cincinnati, 2.
Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 2.
St. Louis, 6; Brooklyn, 2.

FEDERAL LEAGUE.

Standing of Clubs.

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss.
Baltimore	16	6	.727
St. Louis	15	12	.556
Chicago	15	13	.538
Indianapolis	13	11	.545
Indianapolis	10	10	.500
Buffalo	10	12	.455
Kansas City	11	17	.393
Pittsburgh	8	17	.320

Today's Games.

Indianapolis at Brooklyn.
Kansas City at Baltimore.
St. Louis at Buffalo.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.

Tomorrow's Games.

Chicago at Pittsburgh.
Indianapolis at Brooklyn.
Kansas City at Baltimore.
St. Louis at Buffalo.

Yesterday's Results.

Chicago, 6; Pittsburgh, 0.
Indianapolis, 15; Brooklyn, 2.
Buffalo, 11; St. Louis, 2.
Baltimore, 7; Kansas City, 2.

NAPS' CRACK TWIRLER

CICOTTE OF RECORD

Chunky White Sox Twirler Is Within Step of Equaling Cy Young's Work.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

JACK McINNES ROBS CICOTTE OF RECORD

Chunky White Sox Twirler Is Within Step of Equaling Cy Young's Work.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

KID EGAN FINISHES TRAINING FOR BOUT

Washington's Veteran Promises to Give Young McCue the Beating of His Life.

That Kid Egan is sparing no pains to prepare himself for his fifteen-round battle with Young McCue tomorrow night at Ardmore was shown today when the Washington featherweight boxed sixteen hard rounds with his sparring partners and finished without even breathing fast.

"I'm ready now," said he, "and I'll rest now until the moment for entering the ring. If I don't hand a lacing to McCue I'll quit boxing forever. He'll weigh more than I do, but I'll make up the difference with my speed. He's in for a fine whipping, take it from me."

The announcement that Hermann Schaefer will referee the preliminary bout between Karl Herz and Kid Chinn has stirred up the baseball fans, and they are sure to be at the ringside when the Griffiths' comedian strips for action. They are in for some fun, too, for Schaefer is a some referee. All details have been completed for the evening's entertainment. Kid Egan and Young McCue will weigh in at 128 pounds at 6 o'clock at Pete Baum's gymnasium, on Thirteenth street, and go immediately to Ardmore. The preliminary battle will start at 8:30, bringing the final on about an hour later.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and Schack; Mackmen, Shawkey, Bressler and Lapp.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Eddie Cicotte was robbed of a no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-first game yesterday when Jack McInnes stung him for a single in the eighth inning. Until then and after, as well, the stunted White Sox twirler was simply invincible. In the nine frames only twenty-eight men faced him, and he had no trouble winning, 3 to 0.

"Sorry, old man," said McInnes to Cicotte, as the little Mackman landed on first base, "but I just had to do it. Perhaps the next time, you'll set the record."

"Yes, I'm young yet," replied Cicotte, with a grin. He was greatly disappointed at his failure. Cicotte's performance was remarkable. Only four balls were driven beyond the infield, and only one or two of the infielders' chances were difficult. The White Sox inner quartet fielded brilliantly. Bob Shawkey was hit hard, and had to give way to Rube Bressler. The score: R. H. E. White Sox..... 000 000-0 12 0 Mackmen..... 000 000-0 1 1 Batteries—White Sox, Cicotte, and